

Course Goal & Instructor

The purpose of this course is to prepare you to think, diagnose and treat patients with skills and techniques provided by Applied Kinesiology. The format of this course will be fun, intense, detailed, and will include plenty of workshops.

The human body has a unique way of expressing itself and by learning to understand the language, along with standard procedures, a correct diagnosis and treatment can be made.

Here's what some doctors have to say about the course:

"Dr. Shin is a fantastic and dynamic instructor of AK and we recommend every doctor to take this course! This will help remove doubt from your practice."

-Scott Walker, DC ( Founder of NET)
San Diego, CA

"Dr. Bruce Shin's Applied Kinesiology Course was the pivotal moment in my education where I shifted from a symptom chaser to being able to find and handle the cause of a patient's problems. It's a must for someone looking to take their healthcare to the next level."

-Benjamin Horning, LACC (Certified)
Los Angeles, CA

"Dr. Bruce Shin's Applied Kinesiology Course was extremely insightful in helping to expand my current view on what it truly means to be a health care professional. The knowledge I gained has unlocked a curiosity about the human body like never before, and I would recommend the class in a heartbeat!"
